SPECIAL HOLIDAY SEASON EVENTS

Three shows especially for families!

THE PAPER BAG PLAYERS

The Paper Bag Players are "The world's finest and funniest theatre for young audiences." Their original musical skits with "live" music are all about being a young kid...the first hair cut, when friends sleep over, taking a trip, making an imaginary movie...with lots of audience participation.

Sunday November 13, 1994 3:00 p.m.
Single Tickets: $8 children and adults.

DEAN FRIEDMAN'S CHANUKAH CONCERT FOR KIDS

Adults will remember Dean Friedman for his smash hit records of the late 1970's, including "Ariel." But to kids, he is that funny man who sings those silly songs including "One Million Motzah Balls," and "If I Was A Dreidle." Celebrate the beginning of Chanukah with Dean, Larry The Latke, and others!

Sunday November 27, 1994 3:00 p.m.
Single Tickets: $6 children and adults.

KWANZAA CELEBRATION

Kwanzaa is a non-religious African-American Holiday Celebration, emphasizing family and community values. The Paramount's Kwanzaa Celebration features The On-Time Studio Dancers, a "live" band, and special guests from the northern Westchester civic community.

Sunday December 18, 1994 3:00 p.m.
Single tickets: $5

MOVIES AT THE PARAMOUNT

Not only is the Paramount the finest performing arts venue, but it's also the place to see the very best foreign and domestic films in Westchester! Every Thursday, Friday, or Saturday night that a "live" event is not onstage, RAF Film screens a classic or current release movie. The screen is one of the largest in this area, and the projection and sound equipment is the finest north of Manhattan. Because of the nature of the movie business, films are only booked three months in advance. RAF Film publishes a separate Film Guide, which is available in the lobby. Or, to add your name to the Film Guide mailing list, call the Box Office at (914) 739-2333.

Nigerian storyteller Chinedu Okoye will lead the celebration. Dance and music will be supplied by dancers, drummers and musicians from The On Time Studio Dancers. A post-show reception and marketplace featuring gifts and crafts by local artists will be held in the Paramount East Gallery.
